

Living on a fixed income can be difficult. Buying used clothing and household items can help your dollar stretch further.

Where to Find Used Clothing & Furniture

There are many places in Thunder Bay that offer used clothing, household items, and furniture at prices that fit any budget. The items are in great condition, are reasonably priced, and can be purchased by anyone.

Things You Can Do

- Make a list of the items you need before you shop
- Phone the store to check if they have what you are looking for
- Buying used is a great way to participate in recycling
